

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

BENNY D. MAYBERRY, ID # 1606103,) Plaintiff,)
vs.)	No. 3:10-CV-2004-N-BH
)
HUTCHINS STATE JAIL, et al,)
Defendant.)	Referred to U.S. Magistrate Judge

FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Pursuant to Special Order No. 3-251, this case has been automatically referred for pretrial management. Based on the relevant filings and applicable law, the case should be dismissed for want of prosecution.

I. BACKGROUND

On or about September 8, 2010, Plaintiff filed a complaint using a standard form for prisoners filing a civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 in the Eastern District of Texas.

Page two of the form specifically states:

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

It is your responsibility to inform the Court of any change of address and its effective date. Such notice should be marked “NOTICE TO THE COURT OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS” and shall not include any motion(s) for any other relief. Failure to file a NOTICE TO THE COURT OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS may result in the dismissal of your complaint pursuant to Rule 41(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

By order dated October 4, 2010, part of the case was severed and transferred to this district. (See doc. 4.) On October 12, 2010, the Court mailed Plaintiff an order and notice of deficiency. (See doc. 6.) The order and notice was returned as undeliverable on October 27, 2010, with the notation “RTS DSCHD”. (See doc. 7.) It appears that Plaintiff has been discharged from his place of incarceration and changed addresses without notifying the Court as directed on the complaint form.

II. INVOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure permits a court to dismiss an action sua sponte for failure to prosecute or follow orders of the court. McCullough v. Lynaugh, 835 F.2d 1126, 1127 (5th Cir. 1988). This authority flows from a court's inherent power to control its docket, prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases, and avoid congested court calendars. Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 629-31 (1962). Plaintiff has failed to notify the Court of his change in address despite the express instructions on the complaint form, and an order of the Court has been returned as undeliverable. Plaintiff has given no indication that he intends to proceed with this action, and the Court should dismiss his complaint for want of prosecution.

III. RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiff's complaint should be dismissed without prejudice for want of prosecution pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

SIGNED this 29th day of October, 2010.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL/OBJECT

A copy of these findings, conclusions and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of these findings, conclusions and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's findings, conclusions and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Servs. Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
